

A spectacular play in Iowa's defeat of Yale, 6-0, in the first East-West football game of the season. Haas, Yale halfback, being thrown by Kadesky of Iowa after a ten yard gain in midfield.

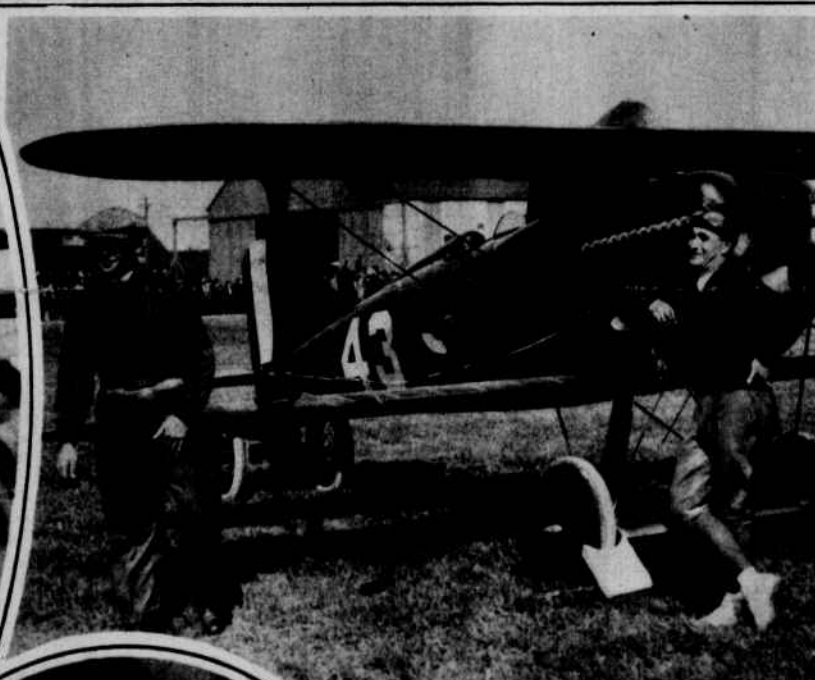

Wide World.

Here's Gov. Miller halting in the midst of his campaign to spend a little time with his three-weeks-old granddaughter, Mildred McCarthy.

Underwood & Underwood.

M. Franklin-Bouillon, French Envoy, being received by Admiral Levavasseur of the French navy on the warship Metz at Constantinople after his conference with Mustapha Kemal Pasha. On the right is M. Venizelos leaving the British Foreign Office after an interview with Lord Curzon.

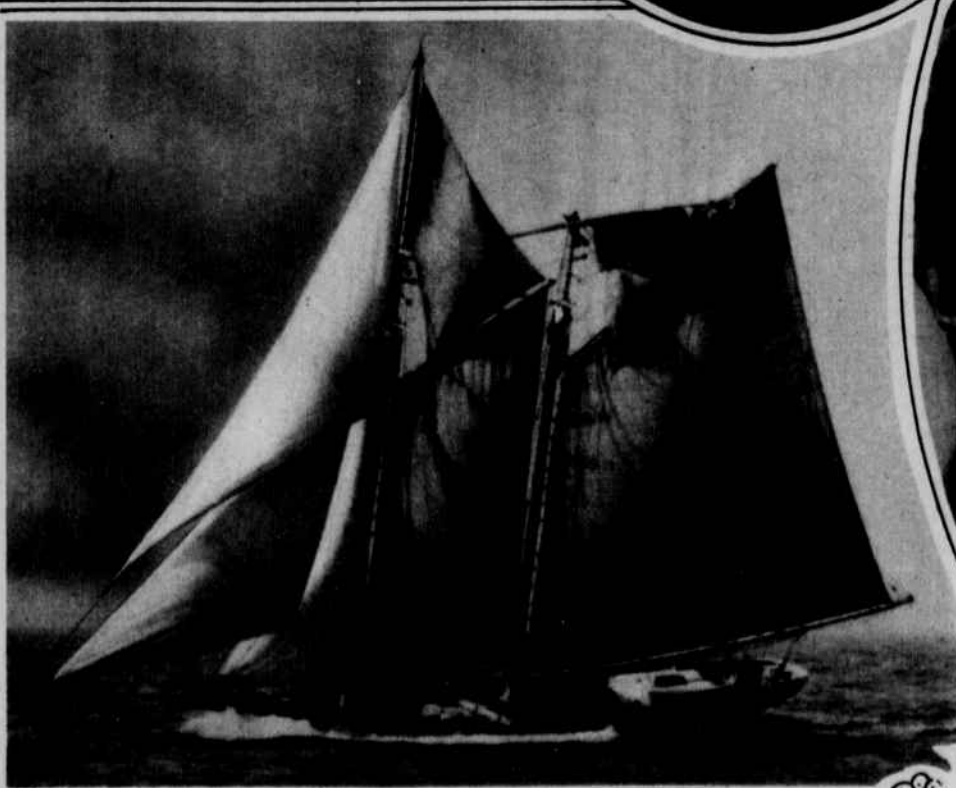

Lieut. R. L. Maughan, United States Army pilot, and the plane with which he won the Pulitzer trophy at Mount Clemens. In a test flight after the race he established a new world's speed record of 248.5 miles an hour.

International.

Keystone.

"Ring-Around-a-Rosy" for grownups, demonstrated by members of the National Recreation Congress, who believe that "every one ought to play more regardless of age." In the right center of the photo is Mrs. Thomas A. Edison and in the circle from her right are Scott Radeker, Mrs. H. S. Braucher, Joseph Lee, Mrs. Francis de Lacey Hyde, H. S. Braucher and Miss Elizabeth Burchenal.

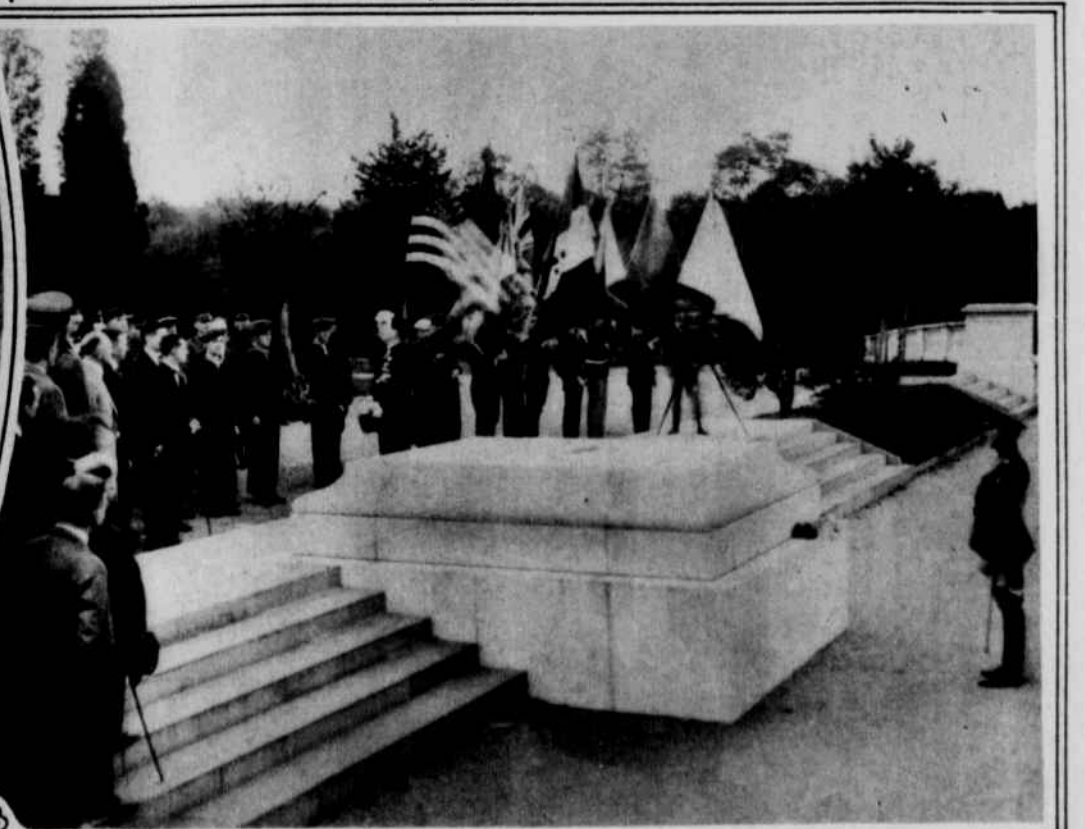

The Elizabeth Howard, New York's entry, shown in the elimination races for the international fishing vessels' trophy just after she had snapped her main topmast, which forced her to retire.

Pacific and Atlantic.

Miss Mildred Stone, who is to marry Mischa Elman, famous violinist, photographed with her dog Kiki. Fotograms.

Veterans from seven European nations on their way to the American Legion convention in New Orleans, pay a tribute at the grave of America's Unknown Hero in the National Cemetery.

Harris & Ewing.